Senate Order on Departmental and Agency Contracts
1 January 2011 to 31 December 2011

Calendar Year 2011

The National Blood Authority (NBA) was created on 1 July 2003.

Pursuant to the Senate Order on departmental and agency contracts, the following tables sets out contracts:

- (a) the administration of which the NBA has assumed responsibility, and
- (b) entered into by the National Blood Authority since its creation, which provide for a consideration to the value of $100,000 or more and which:
- (c) have not been fully performed as at 31 December 2011, or
- (d) which have been entered into during the period 1 January 2011 to 31 December 2011.

The following information is current as at 27 February 2012

Division/Agency/Office	NBA Reference	Contractor	Amount of the Consideration ($value inc of GST)	Subject Matter	Commencement Date	Completion or Estimated Completion Date	Q1: Are there any provisions regarded as confidential Y / N ?	Q2: Are there any other requirements of confidentiality Y / N ?	If "Y" - reasons for Confidentiality
			Some contracts listed do not provide for a specified amount of consideration. In such cases, the amount of consideration shown below is based on current estimates of the expected 'whole of life' value of the contract.						Most of the contracts listed contain confidentiality provisions of a general nature. These provisions typically apply by reference to a general definition of confidential information as being information that is inherently confidential, that is either specifically identified by a party as confidential or is obtained or generated in circumstances indicating confidentiality. The reasons for including such clauses include: - ordinary commercial prudence that requires protection of cost or pricing information, trade secrets, proprietary information and the like; and/or - protection of Commonwealth material or personal information. The entries below apply only to confidentiality clauses within the relevant contracts which go beyond general confidentiality provisions of this nature.
